Surprise inspection reveals 'poor practice' and residents in distress

Care home 'like a prison'

BY STEPHEN PENN
editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

A 'CULTURE of neglect' at a nursing home left its residents unsafe and treated as if they 'didn't matter' according to a damning report released by a healthcare watchdog.

Alicia Nursing Home in Marsh Road, Luton, was deemed to have insufficiently trained staff who posed a risk to the people who live in the facility, according to the Care Quality Commission (CQC).

Inspectors found that, while there were sufficient numbers of staff on duty, residents were left 'calling out in distress' and 'with food over their clothes and faces', following unannounced visits in November last year.

One relative told the investigators 'it feels a bit like a prison', while another claimed their nutritional needs were not being met by 'awful' food.

Some medicines were not administered correctly, with one member of staff telling inspectors: 'They (the residents) seek attention. If you can't deal with them you have to give them meds'.

Though some examples of good care from individual staff were identified, the report also highlighted concerns over welfare saying: 'One resident told us they were not confident that staff knew how to keep them safe.'

The CQC also said the management team had 'failed to identify poor practice in the home or the impact it had on the people who lived there'.

One agency nurse told inspectors that they had no previous experience of this type of nursing despite leading shifts across two units on their second day.

Another employee said they did not have any experience of working with people with mental health needs and that they 'just copy what other staff do'.

In light of all of these factors, the nursing home was rated 'inadequate' in all five areas of care.

In response to the findings, Andrea Thasan, general manager at Apex Care Homes, which runs Alicia, said: 'It was a huge disappointment to receive such a report following the inspection.'

'Since then and the initial feedback some four months ago, the report for which we have just received, we have been working very hard with our staff and managers within Alicia to improve performance and ensure all areas of concern have been addressed.'

Council clears school of bullying allegations

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

A SCHOOL investigated over claims of bullying and intimidation has been cleared.

Luton Borough Council said it has found that Lealands High School had 'followed its policies and procedures correctly' in light of a number of claims made by a whistleblower.

John Burridge, the school's headteacher, said the past few months had been a 'very difficult and upsetting time' for him and the school.

The allegations first came to light at the beginning of this year after the whistleblower sent an email making a series of allegations, including criticism of the way controlled assessments are administered, to the council;

Ofsted; exam boards and unions; and politicians in the town.

Since then, the authority said it has reviewed evidence which 'does not support any of the allegations raised by the whistleblower.'

Council officers interviewed staff and the complainant, and looked at the school's policies and other documents.

In a statement, Mr Burridge said: "The past few months have been a very difficult and upsetting time for the school and me, personally.

"It is very unfortunate that someone felt it necessary to pursue this course of action, but I respect their right to do so.

"I take my responsibilities very seriously and continue to work extremely hard, with the support of a fantastic staff team and school community, to secure the best possible education for the children in our care.

"Now that the investigation is concluded, I hope that we can continue to move forward and focus on being the best school we can be."

A spokeswoman for Luton council said: "Our investigation has found that the school has followed its policies and procedures correctly and the evidence reviewed does not support any of the allegations raised by the whistleblower.

"If an employee makes an allegation in good faith, but it is not confirmed by the investigation, no action will be taken against them.

"If however, an allegation is made frivolously, maliciously or for personal gain, disciplinary action, may be taken by the school."

Church's plans for cinema foiled by planners

PLANNING proposals to turn an iconic building into a church and community centre have been thrown out.

Luton Borough Council has said plans to partially convert the ABC Cinema into a church were not in line with its own proposals to turn the town into an 'effective and diverse sub-regional centre'.

Last month, the church behind the application, In His Presence Worship Ministries, told Luton on Sunday it wanted to expand into the cinema and make it 'open for all'.

Reverend David Foh-Amoaning, the head of the church, said he was 'disappointed' with the decision.

A council spokesman said: "It is considered that the granting of temporary consent for use as a place of worship would not facilitate the redevelopment of this prominent site within the central shopping area as the predominant activities of a use of this kind would take place outside the core shopping and leisure times and therefore it fails to contribute to the regeneration of the town centre in the short term."

NOT IN THE VISION: The church conversion does not fit the council's plan

POLICE BIKES HELP TACKLE CRIME

A CRACKDOWN on the illegal and dangerous practice of riding off-road bikes in public places has begun in Houghton Regis and Luton.

In order to combat the anti-social behaviour, the force has commissioned two off-road police bikes to help target those committing the offences.

On Tuesday and Wednesday last week a team of 24 police staff took to the streets, along with two road policing officers on the specially-enlisted bikes.

The initiative, called Operation Meteor, resulted in two arrests in Houghton Regis.

Officers also visited two addresses as a result of reports from the public on incidents of dangerous behaviour.

UNIVERSITY HOLDS EU DEBATE

A DEBATE about Britain's place in Europe, organised by and hosted at the University of Bedfordshire last Wednesday was hailed as the first of its kind for 50 years.

The Britain in Europe Conference brought together academics, journalists and politicians from across the country to discuss issues such as British Euroscepticism, how the European Union is presented in the media, and what an EU exit following 2017's planned referendum would mean for the nation.

The university's Vice Chancellor Bill Rammell spoke at the event, drawing on his background as ex-Foreign Office Minister and former chairman of Labour's Britain in Europe Group.

TEEN COMPETES IN BEAUTY COMP

A LUTON college student will be representing the town in a beauty pageant for Miss Guyana UK later this year.

Taryn Harris, 17, from Leagrave, will take part in the finals on November 21 after successfully negotiating her way through an audition held last month.

The Luton Sixth Form student is hoping to raise £600 in sponsorship fees between now and then to help cover her costs for the competition. If she wins, she will be flown to Guyana to compete for Miss World Guyana.

Bin charge plan met with scorn

RUBBISH: Residents are angry at plans to charge £35 to have garden waste bins emptied

BY NICK SMITH

nicksmith@lutononsunday.co.uk

PLANS which could see residents being charged an annual fee to have garden waste collected have come under fire.

The leader of Luton Liberal Democrats David Franks, along with a number of the town's residents, have expressed opposition to a proposal put forward by Luton Borough Council to impose a £35 yearly charge to have garden waste bins emptied.

The idea was proposed in the medium term financial plan, which was approved in a full council meeting on February 23.

Any introduction, if it does happen, would be no earlier than April next year.

Cllr Franks said: "We accept that plans can change and the £35 brown bins tax could be increased, reduced or scrapped altogether."

"But this Labour run council has already rejected one attempt to remove it from the medium term financial plan."

Labour Cllr Sian Timoney rebuked his remarks, saying: "It's something yet to be looked at or discussed and has just been set out in the plan as a possibility."

"It can't be introduced until it's been discussed by the council."

A spokesman for Luton Borough Council said: "We expect that it will need to identify further ongoing savings of £47 million from 2016-20 and a number of potential options have been identified to meet this.

"One of the options in the council's mid-term plan is to charge for brown bin collection. Any decision on this would be taken as part of the budget-setting proposals for the financial year 2016-17."

On our website and social media we asked you, our readers, what you thought of the proposal.

Around 88 per cent of those who voted in our online poll were against the introduction of the increase, versus 12 per cent who were in favour of the change. While on social media the response was largely negative with a number of comments from infuriated residents.

What do our readers think?

Council tax increases most years and services are being cut back. Where does our money go?

TRIBUTES: Flowers and rugby shirts were left at the scene of the collision which killed Mark Davey, inset, after he had been racing his Audi R8 against a black Porsche 911 down the A6 near Wixams

Man was 'racing' before car crash

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

AN inquest has concluded that a man who died after his sports car crashed into a roundabout was racing at the time.

Luton man Mark Davey was racing his Audi R8 against a black Porsche 911 when he crashed on the A6 near Wixams last September.

Mr Davey, 33, died from severe head and brain injuries after he hit the roundabout on September 13.

During an inquest held into his death at Ampthill Coroner's Court this week. Senior Coroner Tom Osborne concluded: "The deceased was racing with another vehicle at high speed when it collided with a roundabout."

"The collision happened at 48mph and saw the car propelled into the air, before it landed on its roof."

"He suffered serious injuries resulting in his death."

Following his death, tributes were left to Mr Davey at the side of the road, from friends and family and also Luton Rugby Club, which he played for.

The club also postponed a TV appearance and dedicated its next match following the crash in memory of him.

He was driving home from an away game after playing for the club at Bedford Swifts when it happened. The driver of the Porsche drove away and has yet to be identified.

Coroner Tom Osborne concluded Mr Davey died as a result of a road traffic collision.

Police hunt thieves after two Corsas are stolen

DETECTIVES are investigating the theft of two cars in Marsh Farm.

A Vauxhall Corsa was taken sometime between 11pm on Sunday and 6am Monday in Morris Close.

It was then burnt out and dumped in a field.

In the second theft, a Corsa was taken from Wexham Close sometime between 7pm Monday and 7am Tuesday morning.

Last month, Luton on Sunday revealed that from January 2014 to February 2015 the most stolen cars in the county were Vauxhall Corsas (44) with Astras following close behind on 38.

A Bedfordshire Police spokeswoman said: "We would appeal for anyone with information on either of these offences to contact us on the non-emergency police number 101.

"Alternatively, call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111."

NO FARE: Some private hire drivers took to the streets to express their dissatisfaction with the council

Meter is running on private hire union demands

THE chair of a driver's union which was on strike this week has said they are now waiting for the council's response to their demands.

Mushtaq Ahmed, from the Luton Borough Driver's Union, said some private hire drivers took action on Wednesday because they wanted better working conditions.

The strike began in Leagrave and finished up outside the Town Hall.

The union has been in discussion with Luton Borough Council over a number of issues, including access to bus lanes, permission to have manufactured tinted windows and five minutes 'grace' when stopping in the town centre. In a statement, the council said its 'primary concern is public safety', but added that it would 'continue to engage with the union and other drivers and operators'.

Mr Ahmed said: "We had phase one and today was phase two, and it was just to show that we are together and what our demands are."

"It's to show that we do have support and now phase three is going to be a bit drastic."

"We have given them a week and it could be longer but they have our email and what our demands are."

Not all drivers were on strike this week, however. Hackney carriages and other private hire drivers were still picking up and dropping off customers.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Tom Bliss feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Tom is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success.

"The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated."

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Tom a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Disabled man wins £7.3m NHS payout

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutonsunday.co.uk

A MAN left severely disabled after being born with a vitamin deficiency has won more than £7 million in compensation from the NHS.

The 24-year-old, who cannot be named for legal reasons, was not offered a vitamin K injection by medics who attended his birth at the Luton & Dunstable Hospital in 1989.

Controversy has dogged the administration of vitamin K to young babies, as it has been linked by some research with the development of childhood leukemia.

But new mothers are still routinely offered the injections for their children since, in rare cases, babies born with a lack of vitamin K can suffer brain damage, or even die, due to internal haemorrhaging.

Robert Glancy QC, acting for the family, told London's High Court the man's mother was never told of the pros and cons of having her child injected with the vitamin. Despite it being mandatory for the drug to be offered at the time, she was not given the option either of the injection or an oral course of vitamin K for her baby.

Tragically, her son was not diagnosed as suffering from the deficiency until three months after his birth, by which time he had endured lasting physical and cognitive disabilities. Through his mother, the man sued East of England Strategic Health Authority - the NHS body which employed the medical staff who attended his birth.

The payout consisted of a lump sum of £2.3m plus annual, index-linked, and tax free payments to cover the costs of his care for life which will start at £181,100, before gradually decreasing over time.

A novel way to name the town's roads

WHAT links Lothair, Tancred and Venetia Roads in Stopsley?

In the 1970s and 1980s I spent many happy, and not so happy, hours playing football and cricket at a usually windswept Lothair Road playing fields. It never occurred to me to question where the name came from.

James Dyer, respected historian and archaeologist and co-author of 'The Story of Luton' (1964), supplies the answer in 'The Stopsley Book' (1998). Charles Breed taught in Stopsley for 32 years from 1893.

He was also involved in the Rural District Council from its foundation in 1896 until its demise in 1933 and was given the honour of naming three new roads laid out in the 1920s.

Breed chose the titles of three of his favourite novels by Benjamin Disraeli (1804-1881), twice Conservative Prime Minister and opponent of William Gladstone (see Gladstone Avenue in LU1). Disraeli found time to write 14 other works while pursuing politics.

If Breed had chosen Copperfield, Chuzzlewit and Nickleby Roads the references would, I am sure, be more apparent to people today.

Disillusioned with politics

Greens do nothing for Ron

NATALIE Bennett, leader of the Green Party is urging us to join her revolution to tackle climate change.

What a cheek.

She hails from Australia which is by far the biggest polluter by head of population in the developed world. In addition to all their own pollution they are busily exporting millions of tons of coal to China and India. Are they pretending they don't know what the Chinese and Indians are doing with it?

The UK produces less than three per cent of the world's man-made CO2, so even if the Greens are right and man-made CO2 is to blame for climate change, we aren't really part of the problem.

Ms Bennett should pack her bags and head back down under where there really could be a problem worth solving.

Go home Ms Bennett.

Time school staff spoke up

I AM writing in reference to the recent Lealands whistleblower allegations in the press and on social media.

I have been employed at Lealands High School since October 2008. I have seen the school physically transformed from the dreary old building that it once was into the bright and vibrant place that it is now with a strong positive ethos, dedicated staff and excellent students.

When staff were first informed of these allegations we were told that the local authority would be investigating the claims fully and were asked to respect that process. However staff are massively frustrated that the whistleblower has a voice but we do not. That frustration has driven me to write in the hope that we can conclude this unfortunate chapter.

Religious schools only divide us

I WAS angry and disappointed when I learned that Sundon Park library was to close.

But my jaw dropped when I heard the premises could become a pre-school for up to 100 children. Anyone who's tried to find a parking space there will understand my dismay. But the next development was even worse.

It seems there are plans afoot to eventually turn it into a faith school. Utter madness.

The biggest single impact that faith schools have on societies is to emphasise and strengthen the divisions within them. So for a government or local authority to encourage or even allow the opening of more of these iniquitous institutions of misunderstanding, prejudice, and bigotry they are actively helping to preserve major barriers to co-existence and harmony. Shame on them.

Far from allowing more faith schools to be opened we should be withdrawing all state funding from them and stamping them out.

Some argue that religions give us moral guidance and draw us together but given the many horrific conflicts currently raging across Africa and Asia only the most wilfully obtuse can fail to grasp the bitter irony of this.

If parents want to give their children religious instruction that's up to them but the subject should not be given the kudos of appearing to have state approval by including it in normal school hours or even on school premises.

'Culture has changed since 2013 shootings'

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

YOUNG people have changed in the two years since father-of-three Paul Foster was killed during a spate of gun-related crime, a community worker has said.

Mark Clarke, head of Walk to Freedom, a Luton-based organisation that helps drug and alcohol addicts in Bedfordshire, said he has seen more young people in Luton 'crying out' for change.

Mr Foster was shot in the chest on April 9 in 2013 during a five-month period where Bedfordshire Police investigated 16 gun-related incidents.

The force said the anti-gun and gang crime operation it started in response to the shootings has seen more than 200 people arrested and 78 people charged.

No-one has been convicted in connection with Mr Foster's murder, but detectives said they have been working to 'disrupt gang activity' and 'address the issues around gangs and gun-related crime'.

Mr Clarke said he 'com-

MURDERED: Paul Foster

mended' the police for the work they had done and added that all organisations in the town had to continue working together.

He said: "Things are quiet, but that's not to say that there's absolutely nothing happening."

"A lot of the young people we are engaging with at the moment are realising that so many people have been put away."

"They want to change their lives now."

"Whether they are involved or not is one thing, but they are actually saying it and that is a good thing", he added.

"I know a number of people have been moved out of the area and young people want to make a change, but what they are crying out for is an alternative to that lifestyle."

"We are developing programs to help that."

"What you get is that these young people who are stealing or whatever, but what society does not realise is that they have more to give."

Detective Inspector Robert Regan, added: "We work closely with a number of partner agencies to address the issues around gangs and gun-related crime to prevent any further tragedies in our communities."

"This is an ongoing piece of work and we meet regularly with partners including Luton Borough Council to identify potential issues at an early stage and put in interventions to support young people who are showing signs of getting involved with gang-related activity."

Carnival is back in town this May

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

GET out your diary, the date for Luton Carnival has been announced!

This year, Luton on Sunday is partnering up with organisers to bring you one fantastic day of fun.

The parade will leave Wardown Park at 1.30pm on May 24 and wind through the town centre before finishing back at the park.

A spokeswoman for the UK Centre for Carnival Arts (UKCCA) said it 'promises to be full of entertainment and colour' with the usual mix of food, music and dance.

Hopeton Walker, chair of UKCCA board, added: "One of the highlights of the Luton calendar is the Luton International Carnival, a fantastic event that showcases what the town has to offer – the artistic flair, the community involvement and wealth of talents and skills. It is a great day out for the family."

Thousands attended last year's event and lined the streets to see the various carnival groups walk past.

Time's running out to vote for your sports hero

If you have not already done so, then make sure to cast your vote in this year's Sports Awards today as the deadline is midnight tonight.

The nominations for the awards, held by Luton Sports Network and sponsored by Luton on Sunday, have all come in and all that is left now is for you, our readers, to choose who you think should be this year's Sports Personality of the Year winner.

You can vote by visiting our website luton-dunstable.co.uk and choosing from our selection of candidates.

Some of the trophies up for grabs this year include Sports Man of the Year, Sports Team of the Year, Sports Woman of the Year and the Service to Sport award.

Among the winners at last year's ceremony was international gymnast Elliott Browne, who won a gold medal while representing Great Britain in Portugal in 2014.

Prospective MPs grilled at college

FOUR candidates and one representative sat in front of the Eastside Theatre at Luton Sixth Form College this week, preparing to field a number of tough questions from keen politics students.

Labour's Kelvin Hopkins, who is looking for his fifth term as MP, was joined by Conservative Dean Russell, the Green Party's Sofiya Ahmed and UKIP's Allan White with Luton's Liberal Democrat leader David Franks stepping in for his party's candidate Aroosa Ulzaman, who was unable to attend the event due to personal reasons.

In the 90 minute hustings, the candidates took on a number of challenging questions from the audience, which at times got a bit heated, particularly between Ms Ahmed and Mr White, calling on chairwoman Sophy Lelliott, a student at the sixth form, to move the debate forwards.

Reporter NICK SMITH went along to hear why candidates believe youngsters in the town why they should get their vote. . .

membership of the European Union, the Human Rights Act and the environment.

However, arguably the most relevant question of the evening to the audience was what each candidate can bring to the often forgotten group of young voters and how they will ensure that their voices are heard.

Ms Ahmed got a warm reception for her answer, saying: "Young people are being screwed over by governments because we're not reliable voters.

"Pensioners are listened to because the parties know they're guaranteed voters.

"Unless young people become active in politics, the main parties are not going to take notice of our interests."

The idea was shared by almost all of the others, who promised equal representation for all citizens, with an impetus on gaining support of young people.

Mr Russell took a different approach from the call to action, saying that new industries need to be brought to Luton in order to secure the town's future and keep the current generation here, instead of leaving for London or the big industrial hubs in the north.

never meet in the major cities, you meet in the smaller towns outside."

"We need to make Luton like that and the way to do that is to bring 21st century jobs into the town."

He also focused on increased accountability for representatives and promised more interaction between the MP and those who they represent.

Concluding the event, Luton Sixth Form College principal Chris Nicholls said: "I'm both here as principal and also someone who has an avid interest in politics."

"I can honestly say the quality here, in terms of the questions, panelists and the chairing of the event has been better than most BBC Question Times."

Man who abused young girl is jailed

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

A MAN who befriended a single mother at a church went on to sexually abuse her young daughter at his home.

David Peck, 63, was jailed for four years on Monday for carrying out four sexual assaults on the child, who was aged between five and seven.

Luton Crown Court heard that David Peck and his wife were trusted by the girl's mother and they became 'like family', even going on holiday together.

Prosecutor Robert Forrest said the offences took place between July 2012 and July 2014.

They came to light on Bank Holiday Monday last August.

The next morning she came downstairs and said: "Mum, can I tell you something? David has been touching me."

A meeting was arranged at the church and when Peck was confronted he said: "I did it" or "She's not lying," said

Mr Forrest.

Peck handed himself in to Luton police station.

Stuart Sprawson, defending, said Peck had voluntarily sought counselling and pleaded guilty at the first opportunity.

"As soon as the events were disclosed, he met the mother with his wife and made full admissions," he said.

In addition to the sentence, he said Peck must register as a sex offender for life and abide by the terms of a sexual prevention order.

Keep your postal vote safe

Voting by post is an easy and convenient way of voting if you are unable to get to your polling station on the day of an election. But remember, your postal vote is for you, and nobody else.

- As soon as you get your postal voting papers, put them somewhere safe where nobody else can pick them up
- Complete your ballot paper in secret, on your own
- Don't let anyone else vote for you
- Put your ballot paper and postal voting statement in the envelopes provided, and seal them personally
- Take your sealed postal vote to a post box yourself, if you can. Alternatively, give it only to someone you know and trust to post it for you.

For more advice and information about voting by post, go to www.luton.gov.uk/elections.

By Sam Potter

IF YOU suffer from low back pain and sciatica, you are one of over 20 million adults in the UK with this often crippling spinal condition.

Shooting, stabbing and burning pains from the low back, sometimes with additional pain through the buttocks and down the legs are all symptoms of a pinched nerve often called "sciatica".

In severe cases, it can lead to muscle wasting, numbness and constant tingling down to the tip of the toes. Left untreated, the intense pain can rapidly wear you down and drain the joy out of life.

That is, until now...

Recent advances in the treatment of sciatica and lower back pain have led to the development and huge success of Non-Surgical Re-Constructive Spinal Care.

The excellent results of this treatment have been published in major medical journals. With success rates as high as 90% some back surgeons recommending their patients try this treatment first before having back surgery.

In Bedfordshire, you can try Non-Surgical Re-constructive Spinal Care at the Atlas Wellness Centre – the office of low back pain and sciatica relief expert Peter Olsson.

Peter and his team of fully trained spinal care specialists have helped over 3,000 patients find relief from their agonising back pain and sciatica.

Special LUTON ON SUNDAY Reader Offer

Breakthrough relief for back pain and sciatica

According to Peter, "We use a combination of ultra-advanced technology, not found elsewhere in Bedfordshire, for precisely diagnosing the cause of your low back pain and sciatica; and a unique programme for reconstructing the damaged area causing the pain; this means superior long-term results for most people."

Because the treatment is non-surgical, safe and easy, most patients report an almost immediate relief from their pain.

Patient Jeff P. from Cambridge says, "My back pain was unbearable but the worst thing was the searing burning pain I felt in my buttock and leg.

I couldn't work or do anything useful and the drugs my GP prescribed hardly did anything.

My wife insisted I respond to one of these ads, I thought it would be a total waste of time, but I'm so glad she kept on at me.

Thank god I called your number, I'm 95% better in just a couple of weeks."

Your invitation for a comprehensive consultation and examination to pinpoint the cause of your low back pain and sciatica...

Luton on Sunday has teamed up with the spine therapy specialists at Atlas Wellness Centre, to help readers find relief from their persistent back and sciatic pain.

All you have to do to receive a thorough diagnostic examination with the most advanced technology in the world and a comprehensive easy to understand report on your state of health is call 01234 340317.

Mention this article (CODE: LOS37SCID5) and Peter will happily reduce his usual consultation fee of £195 to just £37. But hurry, due to obvious reasons – this is a time limited offer – with only 100 reader consultations available at this exclusively discounted rate.

My advice, don't suffer a moment longer...

Find out if Non-Surgical Re-Constructive Spinal Care can help you, book a consultation with Peter and his team now by calling 01234 340317, they are waiting to take your call today.

They actually treat the cause of your health problem, not just your symptoms.

That's why hundreds of grateful patients tell them "You gave me back my life!"

Over the years, they've treated thousands of patients with back problems and sciatica. The vast majority of them have enjoyed superior, lasting relief. In fact, many who've suffered and have tried other remedies have told them they gave them back their lives!

Call them now and get a full and thorough examination to pinpoint the cause of your problem for just £37, the normal cost of such an exam is £195 so you will save £158!

Don't suffer from the pain and immobility any longer. Discover the natural treatment that can eliminate the cause of your problem and give you the safe, lasting relief you deserve.

Call them now on 01234 340317 and cut out or tear off this valuable article now and take it to your appointment. You'll be entitled to a comprehensive examination to diagnose the cause of your problem – and you'll be on your way to safe, lasting relief! Don't delay your important diagnosis and treatment another moment!

You can even call on the weekend and leave a message on their answer machine to secure your spot as they promise to return all calls; and during the week they are very busy, so if they don't pick up straight away do leave a message.

Sciatica Relief Expert Peter Olsson, says: In 9 years of practice, I've never seen a treatment as effective as Non-Surgical Re-Constructive Spinal Care for patients with sciatica or lower back pain

For obvious reasons they can't help everyone at this reduced price, so please call soon to secure your special opportunity.

Town to host human trafficking gathering

BY CARL MUNGAZI
carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

EXPERTS from all over the country will be meeting next month to shed light on the 'hidden crime' of human trafficking.

Myrna Loy, a safeguarding administrator based in Marsh Farm, will be hosting the event on May 19 along with Bristol-based anti-trafficking charity Unchosen.

Ms Loy, who experienced abuse as a child when she was in foster care, said human trafficking has become a 'passion' of hers ever since she started looking into the subject in recent years.

Bedfordshire Police say it is 'a hidden crime' and 'hard to gauge'. Recorded figures for Luton show the town had ten cases of trafficking between 2010 and 2014, including five of sexual exploitation and one of domestic servitude.

According to Crimestoppers UK, human trafficking is the second most profitable crime after drugs and has an annual value of around £20m.

Ms Loy said she is able to empathise with victims as she knows what it is like to be 'taken out of a caring environment and taken somewhere else'.

Among those attending the conference at the Hat Factory will be the UK's anti-slavery commissioner Kevin Hyland.

Ms Loy said: "I have been an abused woman so I can empathise, but I have not been abused to the extent of those who have been through organised crime."

"I was too trusting and adults who I trusted took advantage of me. When you think about exploitation, it can be anything."

"When people think about human trafficking, they isolate themselves and think that it happens in third world countries, but as an abused woman I want to show what it feels like."

During the conference delegates will watch films about the subject provided by Unchosen.

The charity holds yearly competitions in which groups and individuals attempt to make the best film highlighting the issue.

Ms Loy added: "What the film is supposed to do is to help delegates be aware of the signs of abuse, and what stands out to me is that anybody could be a victim."

"You get people who are out work or parents who tell their kids to leave because they are not contributing enough, so these people are desperate for a job and they are put in the hands of traffickers."

"And the traffickers are waiting and looking for them, and the people who are vulnerable go to them."

"It then becomes a vicious circle because they cannot get out."

■ The conference will be held from 6.30-9.30pm.

No Turkish Delight for charity cyclists

BY CARL MUNGAZI

carl.mungazi@lutononsunday.co.uk

TWO men on a worldwide charity cycle ride have spoken of their relief after being stranded in Turkey.

Amer Nazir and his colleague Abuzar Kazmi, both from Luton, were due to fly from Turkey to Georgia on April 11 but missed their flight after being given boarding passes for a closed flight.

They then managed to fly out the next day but their bikes were left behind and had to be sent on April 13.

The pair have managed to raise £198,000 so far but Mr Nazir said the mix-up had caused an 'unnecessary headache', which was made worse when they lost their wallets for a few hours.

However, he added that things got better after they were helped by the airport's chief of police and the owner of the apartment they were staying at in Istanbul.

Mr Nazir said: "After that, someone handed in our cards to the lost and found but they took out a bit of money."

"Then the battle started and the airline were trying to charge us £250 for a no-show.

"We called our apartment owner who came to help us and the airline checked to see that I had put the bikes through. They accepted their faults and then they gave us tickets for another flight."

He added: "It cost us an unnecessary headache and the worst moment came when I realised that I had lost my wallet and I had no bikes."

"It all came together in the end because of the determination of me, my friend and our Turkish friend. I think it also helped that I met the chief of police because before that, I had spoken to about 11 people but no-one seemed to care."

The pair, who set off on February 28, have already been through seven countries and are due to finish in November. Luton on Sunday contacted Turkish Airlines for a comment, but the airline had not responded at the time of going to press.

Poetry society celebrates the best of the bard to mark day of his birth

POETRY

SHAKESPEARE'S BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Conference room, Luton Central Library
Saturday, April 25

HE is one of England's greatest exports and later this month whole the world will pay tribute to him.

Luton will be following suit and the town's Poetry Society will once again be hosting their annual William Shakespeare birthday 'party'.

The celebration takes place on the final weekend of April, this year marking 451 years since the bard was born.

Founder of Luton Poetry Society and Luton Poet Laureate, Mary Emeji said: "He's my inspiration and has been for many years.

"I feel a strong connection to his works as we write on similar themes."

The Nigerian-born poet and law graduate, who moved from Nigeria in 2003 to study at the University of Bedfordshire, has been writing poetry since her teenage years.

She was appointed Luton's Poet Laureate in 2012 and has released six poetry collections since, one of which has been acknowledged by Her Majesty's office.

Such is Mary's connection to Shakespeare, she released a collection titled Timeless Date in which she combined her own work with Shakespeare's.

She said: "I decided to do a book with him. It's like my very own Doctor Who Tardis where William meets Mary and time freezes. The cocktail of poems will lead one to believe that these two really know each other. I found there was a real connection in the works, despite them being from two different poets."

This will be the fourth annual event celebrating the birth, life, and works of Shakespeare. On the previous events, Mary said: "William Shakespeare is the poet of poets, we usually start off our monthly meet-

WAY WITH WORDS:
Shakespeare's birthday will be marked by Luton Poetry Society and poet laureate, Mary Emeji ings with a poem by William on the chosen theme for the day. Our yearly celebration of his birthday is so profound because you hear many poets perform Shakespeare in varied forms and voices. It's amazing, and we learn from each other."

Local poets will be performing at the event, both with poems of their own and also some of the works of the man himself.

"Everyone is welcome to come along to the event and recite some of their own works if they wish, whether they are members or non-members."

The event will run from 2-4pm at Luton

Central Library in the conference room. Entry is £3 for non-members and free for members of the society. Membership costs £20 a year and covers entry to all their monthly events. For more information on Luton Poetry Society, the events, and Mary's work, visit lutonpoetrysociety.com

'Tis the season of Grove drama

DRAMA SEASON

The Grove Theatre, Dunstable
Various days

SUSPENSE and intrigue is the order of the day this month at the Grove Theatre as its drama season opens.

Starting on April 23 with James Cawood's tense thriller, Stone Cold Murder, spine-tingling productions will be making its way to Dunstable to provide what should be good nights out for family and friends.

In Stone Cold Murder, Olivia and Robert, owners of a secluded hotel are enjoying the success of their first season when things take a sinister turn.

Their bliss is disrupted by the arrival of a rugged hiker seeking shelter and as the evening unfolds, it becomes clear that the hiker's presence in the desolate spot is anything but a coincidence.

The play stars Freya Copeland (Emmerdale), Gary Turner (Emmerdale) and David Callister (The Bill).

Stone Cold Murder is followed by Arnold Ridley's classic comedy thriller The Ghost Train, which hits the stage on May 28.

The story is about a group of stranded travellers who chance upon a remote railway station but then soon find that all is not what it appears to be. They meet the station master who warns them of a ghostly train that haunts the line and if anyone sets eyes upon it, they're doomed.

After this follows Alan Ayckbourn's comic play Table Manners on June 25, which depicts the interplay between an extended family whose members simultaneously despise each other and can't get enough of each other.

Central to these relationships is Norman, who needs desperately to be needed...by anyone, especially his career-obsessed wife Ruth.

It stars Anna Brecon and David Callister (Emmerdale) and Marcus Hutton (Brookside).

Tickets cost £18 and can be purchased by calling 01582 602080 or visiting the Grove online at grovetheatre.co.uk

Stringing out rock and pop? Just what are you harping on about?!

WHEN listening to Deep Purple, Coldplay or even Metallica, a harp is not the first instrument one would imitate while playing along to the beat.

But that's what Hertfordshire-based harp trio Schrödinger's Strings will be bringing during their concert at the Library Theatre on May 3 between 2-4pm.

The group performs a mixture of original work as well as their own arrangements of classic rock and pop songs.

It consists of two harpists and a guitarist and in addition to playing at festivals across the UK, they have also been abroad in Belgium and France.

Eddie Brown, who plays guitar and is also on the vocals, said the group prides themselves on being able to offer audiences a variety of musical sounds.

He said: "I would say we are quite an original act. We like to play a lot of our own original compositions. We also like taking heavy metal songs and making them serene, taking rock songs and stringing them out; taking pop songs and making them different and taking classical tunes and jazzing them up a bit."

Carol Walker, who plays the harp and does backing vocals, said: "People who come to see us do get surprised and very much entertained by us because we just don't play music, we do put on a bit of an act."

She added: "We can turn our hands to most things. We can tailor ourselves to any event, so if people want to book us but don't want us to do the really wild sort of heavy metal side and they want us to be a little bit more tame, we can do that."

What Your Agent Has To Say

Dodge April showers to be home and dry

THE property market can sometimes seem a bit like the weather. Some days it is fine and sometimes it is rainy.

The market is a bit like that at the moment. Just when it looks as if there is no momentum there is a surge of interest and then as quickly as it comes it stops - just like an April shower.

So in this pre-general election period buyers and sellers seem to lurch between wanting to do something but at the same time worrying about doing it. It is almost as if they know that there are so many factors that are in place that make buying a new home favourable but that there are others which could in the future weigh against such a big decision.

So the answer for some seems to be not to do anything at all. But for many that is not the answer. Parents with young children may need to move before the autumn term for schooling reasons - or rather good-schooling reasons. Then there are the work-related movers and those whose lives have reached a stage where selling and/or buying is a matter of necessity rather than choice.

So if you are going to buy or sell in the coming months when the weather in the property market seems fickle, as long as you take some sensible precautions there is no real reason to get wet. In fact by the time all the others come out from wherever they have been sheltering you will be home and dry.

PRESS RELEASE

MARCH 2015

Do your research on letting agents advises Connells

Local estate agency Connells in Luton is urging both landlords and tenants to pick their letting agents wisely, before entering into an agreement that may not provide the protection you require.

"It is vital that both tenants and landlords do some research into the letting agent they are putting their trust into before they sign an agreement or hand any money over," says Justin Walters, Lettings Manager at Connells Luton. After the Government's announcement that retiree's are now able to access a greater proportion of their pension annuity, some aspiring investors may turn their focus to buy-to-let property. With this in mind, Connells believes that now is an extremely important time for anybody thinking of letting a property to be aware of the correct and current procedures to ensure you are gaining the best possible return from your property and have the right tenants to match your needs.

"There may be an influx of novice landlords over the next few months because of the recent pension changes. Therefore we believe it is vitally important that landlords understand the importance of their letting agent being transparent about the fees they charge and how they are regulated," says.

"Here at Connells we are a member of the Association of Residential Letting Agents (ARLA) which is the leading regulatory letting body in the UK. We also hold our tenant's deposits in the Tenant Deposit Scheme which offers security to both landlords and tenants when the tenancy comes to an end. The services we offer as a letting agent are exactly the type of procedures agents should be providing to protect their customers and it is imperative that whether you are a tenant or landlord you do your research into this before rushing into instructing an agent or letting a house from them," Justin finishes.

For more information on the local property market visit your local Connells branch at Luton or call 01582 840999.

'Fun to drive' MG6 is back and better than ever ...

MG's award-winning MG6 has just got even better with the introduction of the new MG6, which offers 'more MG for your money.'

With much higher levels of specification, the new MG6 offers customers up to £3,000 value-for-money improvement over the previous model. This makes the new car truly amazing value with prices now starting from as low as £13,995.00.

The 2015 version of the MG6 offers major advances in every area of the car which first launched four years ago. The new MG6 offers improved performance; a striking new design; higher levels of comfort; enhanced levels of standard specification; and key technical advances.

The new MG6 offers higher levels of performance, lower emissions, and improved mpg and results from the intensive development work carried out by engineers based at MG's Birmingham operation.

Inside the new and improved

IMPROVED: The new MG6 now offers 'more MG for your money' model, it looks and feels refreshed. Almost every area of the interior has been enhanced to give even higher levels of comfort and convenience.

Making its debut in the new MG6 is MG touch – a system developed in collaboration with leading supplier of aftermarket systems NNG iGo. MG touch embodies a collection of technologies which together provide a highly functional and intelligent infotainment system.

The new iGo Navigation by NNG is an app based navigation system. This has been developed to take advantage of the new MG touch system and is a substantial upgrade over the previous generation. iGo includes European mapping, 3D landmarks, reality junction view, enhanced signpost information, speed limit advice, route selection – fast, short, easy, green and 6/7 digit UK postcode entry.

The new MG6 continues the exceptional handling dynamics of the original car, which was awarded the Auto Express Driver Power Best Handling Award. For customers looking for a car with the great cabin and cavernous boot space of a family-sized car, yet yearn for the driving dynamics of a small car, the new MG6 is the perfect package. Buyers will find a class-leading car offering exceptional value-for-money, without compromising on quality, technology or MG's legendary 'fun to drive' feeling.

COVERCAR

Renault Twingo
Take a look inside . . .

- £9,495 - £11,695
- Emissions: 95-105 g/km
- Max speed 103mph
- 0-62mph 10.3s
- 65.7mpg (combined)

The Renault Twingo switches from a front-engined front-wheel drive hatch to a rear-engined rear-wheel drive city car. Developed in conjunction with Daimler, Renault's baby looks set to give rivals such as the Peugeot 108 and Volkswagen up! something to worry about.

The big news with this Twingo is that compared to its predecessor, it's completely back to front. Where that car was a front-engined front-wheel drive platform, much like almost every other city car on sale, this time round there's been a radical change. The engine is now located at the back and drives the rear wheels. Yes, like a Smart car.

If you didn't know the engine was where you'd normally put your shopping, you'd probably never guess from the outside. The Twingo has a fairly conventional city car silhouette, with elements of Fiat 500 in its cheeky domed profile. The front end adopts the usual Renault family face with bulging headlamps and a detail strip that frames the huge centrally-mounted Renault diamond. Punched inboard of the headlight pods are LED daytime running lights. The design team, headed up by Laurens van den Acker, wanted to evoke the feel of the Renault 5 and the rake of the Twingo's rear screen and the prominent shoulders are said to be inspired by the rear-engined Renault 5 Turbo.

The Renault Twingo is a car that doesn't feel particularly rear-engined to drive, which leaves you wondering what the point is. Then you begin to appreciate the benefits. The front wheels can pivot to 45 degrees, giving the car astonishing manoeuvrability. Rotating the engine and putting it under the boot floor, gives a seriously low centre of gravity, helping both handling and packaging.

Most citycars are at their best in entry-level trims, but the Twingo feels a more assured prospect with a bit more kit in it. In fact, the top of the range Dynamique 90 ENERGY would be our pick, and at under £12,000, it looks very good value against a Volkswagen up! The Twingo was always a fun choice but one that struggled as a genuine all-rounder. Renault looks to have given this third-generation car the tools it needs to give the class leaders a real scare.

UP AND RUNNING: Cameron McGeehan puts Luton in front

Play-off bid is back

SKY BET LEAGUE TWO
LUTON TOWN
HARTLEPOOL UNITED

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

LEGEND has it that, during the Napoleonic Wars, some Hartlepuddlian fishermen mistook an ape, which had washed upon the shore, for a French spy and sentenced it to death via the hangman's noose.

It is, in all likelihood, an apocryphal story which, until this victory, was every bit as fanciful as the notion that Luton Town would qualify for the League Two play-offs. But the Hatters made monkeys out of Hartlepool United and now all bets are on.

Cameron McGeehan opened the scoring in the fifth minute, followed by a lesser spotted penalty for Jake Howells on his 24th birthday and Scott Griffiths added a third in the second half.

Bar a 20 minute, second half wobble this was the Hatters' best performance in months, yet it is one thing to claim their most recent victories against two relegation candidates – Pools and Tranmere – now they must see off play-off rivals Southend and Stevenage to book a place in the top seven.

In that endeavour they were aided by Carlisle, who beat the seventh-placed Argyle, to leave Luton level on points with the Pilgrims and out of the top seven but only now on goal difference. Perhaps things are looking up after all.

"It was a good day all round," said assistant manager Terry Harris, adding: "We knew today we needed to get a win to take it on to next Saturday, really, regardless of how results went elsewhere in the country."

"Please God, it goes okay for us next Saturday and we'll move on to the last game of the season, but one game at a time.

"We've said to the players for a while that it [play-offs] is possible, we can do this and please believe what we say and they have done."

Luton made three changes from the brave ten-man stand and midweek draw at Dagenham with Mark Cullen, Shaun Whalley and Howells all restored to the starting line-up and they would prove inspired choices.

But first McGeehan squeezed a header through a crowd of bodies in the Pools six-yard box. It was a soft goal but Town have been due a slice of good fortune for quite some time. That was exceeded by a miracle ten minutes later when Whalley wriggled into the penalty box and went down in instalments, though it was a foul.

Referee Gary Sutton pointed to the spot and, after waiting 192 days for a penalty between September and Easter, Howells converted their second in four games.

The birthday boy then sliced the visitors open

Stockwood roar to Bedfordshire Cup final glory

RUGBY UNION

BY TIM BARTLETT
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

STOCKWOOD Park RFC beat local rivals Dunstablians 37-22 to win this season's Bedfordshire Cup yesterday.

It is the 12th time Park have won the competition and they have successfully defended it after also lifting the trophy by winning the final against Biggleswade last season.

The game marks the end of a season the Dees will want to forget after they already suffered relegation from Midlands Two East South this term to join Stockwood in the division below.

Two first-half tries from Kyle Jennings, with Steve Pollock adding both conversions and a penalty, gave Stockwood a 17-10 lead, as they turned around to face the Dees in the second half with the wind on their backs.

Skipper Jamie Hoque extended Stockwood's advantage after the restart, with Pollock converting.

"He [Hoque] was absolutely outstanding, the game's man of the match," said Stockwood Park's President John Humphries. "He was everywhere, in support of all the play."

Pollock added two penalties in response to a Dees try, before Aaron Beattie finished off a Stockwood drive, converted by Pollock to give Park a 22-point lead.

Although the Dees scored late on, Stockwood Park were not to be denied cup glory.

"It was a very entertaining cup final," said Humphries. "Both sides contributed and Stockwood Park put down their marker for next season, where these teams will be facing each other in the league."

Luton RFC signed off the season in some style, beating Romford & Gidea Park 17-13 on the road in London One North. The win makes no difference to the final league position, from Luton's perspective. They finish the season in 10th position having won 12 out of their 26 matches.

The top scorer had the ball in the net soon after but was deemed offside when snaffling the rebound from Elliot Lee's parried shot.

Even before that, rampant Town could have had a third but Nicky Featherstone cleared a Whalley blast off the line.

The instinctive reactions of Elliot Justham prevented Michael Harriman from putting through his own net and giving the visitors an Cullen and Luke Wilkinson could have done better with a pair of chances before the break because, with a trip to Roots Hall next week, Town will need to brush up on their finishing.

That was

Harrison but tried to go it alone when three of his team-mates were lining up for a tap-in.

Luton then inexplicably sat off United, but the north-east outfit didn't have the tools to capitalise and so, from a rare second half corner, Griffiths scrambled the ball home for his second of the season. That killed Hartlepool's mini revival and completed part one of the Mission Almost-Impossible trilogy.

Now for the difficult sequel.

Barton claim crucial victory as they set sights on going up

FOOTBALL

sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

A TWO minute double-salvo for Barton Rovers saw them beat Hanwell Town 3-2 yesterday and leap-frog Rugby Town into the final play-off spot ahead of the final game of the season on Saturday.

The result leaves Barton in pole position to take the last play-off spot in the Southern League Division One Central.

Rugby lost 2-0 at Daventry, which leaves Barton two points ahead of the challengers. Hanwell took the lead in the 18th minute, after Eoin Casey was tripped in the box.

Michael Buckley stepped up and buried the spot kick to give the hosts the lead.

However, it didn't take the visitors long to get back on terms, with Ben Sawyer's strike levelling the game after 25 minutes.

The two sides went in level at the break.

In the 55th minute, Hanwell regained the lead following a defensive mix up.

Ian Bywater pressured Kyle Watson, nabbing the ball off him to slot home and give the hosts the advantage once more.

However, Russell Bull stepped up when needed for Rovers.

In the 74th minute, he netted the equaliser and just two minutes later he scored what proved to be a crucial winner.

The win leaves Barton in a great position to be involved in the play-offs where a spot in the Southern Premier Division will be at stake.

The final games of the season sees Barton travel to Aylesbury United, while Rugby welcome second placed Royston Town and must win to stand a chance of making the play-offs ahead of Rovers.

Dunstable Town will await whoever gets promoted to the Southern Premier Division – but the mid-table Blues were not in league action yesterday.

In the Spartan South Midlands Premier Division, AFC Dunstable ran out convincing winners over Holmer Green.

Goals from Jermaine Hall (2), Leon Cashman, Brandon Carney and an own goal saw them win 5-1 against relegation threatened opponents.

The big victory sees AFC remain in third place in the table after what has been a positive season.

In Division One, Crawley Green enjoyed a 3-1 home win against Southall.

There was a big victory in Division Two for The 61 FC (Luton) who thrashed visiting Grendon Rangers 6-1.

Kent Athletic drew 2-2 at Old Bradwell United while Totternhoe were 4-1 winners at home to visiting Wolverton Town.

McGeehan hopes Town have found some magic

BACK IN BUSINESS: Cameron McGeehan celebrates his opener yesterday. Picture: Gareth Owen

HATTERS

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@ltnmedia.co.uk

CAMERON McGeehan insisted that yesterday's 3-0 win over Hartlepool United could be "the magic" Luton Town need to fire themselves into the League Two play-offs.

The midfielder broke the deadlock in the fifth minute, while Jake Howells netted from the spot on his 24th birthday and Scott Griffiths wrapped up a first win in three.

Results elsewhere boosted the Hatters too as seventh-placed Plymouth lost at Carlisle which means they are keeping the Kenilworth Road side out of the top seven by virtue of a better goal difference, with just two games left to play.

McGeehan said: "It couldn't have gone any better really.

"You don't really want to be looking over your shoulder or looking at other results, but it has come to the stage of the season where you have to because it is not in our hands yet.

"When it is in our hands we won't be looking, we'll just be concentrating on ourselves, but if we get the two wins that we need, I'm sure that will be enough."

Town now face tough tests against play-off rivals Southend and Stevenage, so six points is the target, which would also put them in a small run of form, should they qualify for the end of season shake-up.

"It could be the perfect time," said McGeehan, adding: "The gaffer has said that you might be in the play-offs and safe and then the season fizzles out a little bit until you get into the play-off games, when you're not in form."

"Maybe that's the magic we need. We've got a bit of form going into it and hopefully if we win the next two we'll be flying."

The Hatters beat Southend 2-0 back in October – a game which McGeehan watched from the stands as a fan.

He said: "Southend are a good team with a good manager, but I came to watch the game when they played Southend and they [Luton] absolutely dominated the game. Battered them."

"There's absolutely no reason why we can't go to their place and do exactly the same thing because they might not need the points as much as us."

McGeehan's early header against Hartlepool was his first goal back at Kenilworth Road since returning to the club for a second loan spell in February.

"It's a special stadium for me," the Norwich loan ace said, adding: "It was the first stadium I ever played at, in front of a great crowd and the first first-team environment I was in, so I love going out there and putting on the orange."

"It's what I've wanted to do since I left and now I'm able to do it we've got a good win under our belts."

"We've got to keep believing and keep the fans doing what they do best, which is singing away and celebrating."
